SHOW REGULATIONS

GENERAL

1. Neither the Society nor any of its Officers or Servants shall in any way be responsible or accountable for anything that may happen (from any cause or circumstance whatsoever) to visitors, exhibitors, Servants or anyone attending the show, or to any exhibit or any other property brought into the showground, or for anything else in connection with or arising out of, or attributable to the Society's Show.
2. Each exhibitor shall be solely responsible for any consequential or other loss, injury or damage done to or occasioned by, or arising from any animal or article exhibited by him, and for its description as given in the catalogue, and shall indemnify the Secretary and Society Officers and Servants against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto.
3. The Society reserves the absolute right to refuse or reject, unconditionally, any entry.

4. Any person making false entry, or who has given a false certificate, shall forfeit any unpaid prize money and shall be disqualified from exhibiting at the Society's show.
5. All stock must be bona-fide property of the exhibitor at the time of entry.
6. It's a condition of entry, that all stock exhibited is sufficiently trained and under control of a competent handler. Bulls must have two handlers. All exhibitors, whilst in the show rings should wear a white coat, or as prescribed by the Breed Society.
7. Exhibitors in the Cattle and Grand Parade are requested to note that, for safety reasons, children of and under the age of 16 years, will not be allowed to lead animals or accompany exhibitors into the cattle or main rings whilst the parades are taking place unless accompanied by an adult.
8. All distance for radius classes shall be measured on the Ordnance Survey Map.
9. In no case will the Society or its committee be responsible for any loss from accident or mistake or damage to any exhibits or packages, though every care will be taken for their safety.
10. The ages of exhibits will be calculated to the date fixed for the closing of entries unless stated otherwise.
11. If required, Certificates of the ages of animals entered must be delivered to the Secretary. The attention is drawn to the provision of the state health schemes in relation to MV and CAE and their responsibility to observe such rules and regulations. For its part, the Society will provide separate accommodation and guidelines to ensure that necessary controls are taken to preserve accredited status of the animals shown at the show.
12. A condition of entry is that you MUST comply with all current Animal Health and Welfare legislation regarding identification disease control and movements.

TO ENTER

All entries to be made in writing to the Secretary and each exhibitor shall sign such certificates as shall be required by the Secretary at the time of entry. All livestock and Carcase entries CLOSE ON 20TH JUNE, 2022 but the committee nevertheless reserve the right to accept entries up to such a time as they think fit. NO ENTRY WILL BE ACCEPTED FOR JUDGING UNLESS IT APPEARS IN THE CATALOGUE.

13. All entry fees to be paid at the time of entry and no entry will be accepted without payment of the prescribed fees.

JUDGING

14. In all sections, the Judge's decision is final.
15. In all sections, no person other than the appointed Judges, Stewards and Committee Members shall be in any marquee or place of judging at the time of judging.
16. In any of the classes for livestock, where 7 entries are actually exhibited a fourth prize may be given.
17. The Committee reserves the right to split any livestock class, should the number of entries warrant it.
18. Where there are not more than 2 exhibitors in any class, such class may be cancelled, and where there are not more than 4 entries in and class the prize money can be reduced by one third.
19. The Judges will be empowered to withhold prize money when they are of the opinion that there is not sufficient merit in the stock exhibited to justify an award.
20. The Society reserves the right to withhold payment of prize money to any prize-winning exhibitor in the cattle, horses, ponies and heavy horses not parading in the Grand Parade.

REMOVAL OF EXHIBITS

21. There will be a Grand Parade in the main ring of all prize winners of the horse and cattle sections. Any animals that are judged may leave the Showground at 4.00pm except the prize winners, which will parade in the grand parade.

OBJECTIONS

22. In the Livestock section, objections to be laid with the Secretary within half an hour of the class being judged, with a deposit of £20. Deposits will be returned if the objection is upheld.
23. If any dispute shall arise, or any objection made by an exhibitor or any other person, such dispute or objection shall be settled by the Committee, who may decide upon such evidence as may appear satisfactory to them, and their decision in all matters shall be final and conclusive and not subject to appeal. The Society also reserves the right to itself, by its Committee, and in addition to any other provision contained in these rules, the right to refuse of cancel entries or classes, and prohibit exhibition of entries, as the Committee may deem expedient.

CLAIMS

24. All claims for exhibits and selling classes etc must be made to the Secretary before 3.30pm on the day of the show. A commission of 10% will be charged on all sales. If any exhibit is claimed by two or more persons it will be sold by auction on the Showground at 3.45pm. Any amount realised beyond the catalogue price will be divided between the exhibitor and the Society except in selling classes, in which case the whole of the surplus shall go to the Society.
25. If any persons who have entered stock or other items and failed to exhibit the same shall forfeit all fee and charges paid on making their entries.
